

I feel that local radio stations are getting scared that people don't want to listen to advertising, I'm in advertising- sorry guys, but come on... I'd rather pay a small service charge not to listen to advertising than to be bombarded hour after hour by senseless crap thrown our way from car dealers to furniture dealerships. I would hope that our XM service gets even better by this. Thanks alot!